

Instructions for the Teacher

Each student will receive one copy of the handout below.

Students will think of a very specific setting (but they can't tell anyone— it's a secret!)

Students will independently fill out the graphic organizer about their setting.

Students will come together in small groups and trade papers, using the details to infer the setting.

Can You Guess My Setting?

Make a list of four items found in your setting.	Make a list of four clues about the time of day or time of year.	Make a list of four clues about what century this setting could be in (past, present, future?)	Make a list of four more items of your choice that might provide clues about your setting.
