

Personal Writing & Storytelling

Which details in the setting are most important to the plot of the story?	Copy the line(s) from the text that best represents the main conflict for the narrator.	List words and phrases from the text that best convey the narrator's feelings about the lies she is trying to tell.
Which events are happening right now in the story, and which events are flashbacks to earlier in the day?	Why do you think the writer chose to jump around in time in this story? (Past and present)	What can you tell about the relationship between the mother and daughter?

On the back, write about a lie you told once that left you feeling the same way this writer feels by the end of the story. What details of the setting were really important in your own memory?
