

How Meaning Changes

You need access to library books, textbooks for any subject area, or magazines with articles in them. Online resources are also an option for completing the following activities. Fill in the chart below based on what you read today!

Type of Resource (novel, online article, science textbook, library magazine, etc.) <hr/> Title of Resource: <hr/> Copy the example of active or passive voice from the text. Be sure to copy the whole sentence. Place quotation marks around what you copy. Write the page number (if applicable) <hr/>	Now rewrite the text you copied into the opposite voice: If what you just copied used active voice, change it to passive, or vice versa.	How has the meaning of the text changed since you changed the active or passive voice? What did you have to add or omit in order to change the active or passive voice? Which part of the sentence seems more important, or gets more focus, now that you've changed it?
